Bay Area Artists Participate in Napa Makes, a One-Day Curated Art Shop at The Oxbow School

WHAT: Napa Makes is the first collaborative one-day curated art shopping event brought to you by The Oxbow School and The Pollinate Brand.

Artists include: celebrated ceramicist Richard Carter of Carter & Co., cutting-edge fashion designer Yolotli Studio, handmade timepieces by the Bay Area's Bespoke Watch Projects, and unique letterpress goods by local artists Shipwright & Co.

In addition to shopping the creative works of 20+ Bay Area artists, guests can enjoy bites and beverages for purchase from Paulie's Bagels, Houtskool Dumplings, Azur Rosé on tap, Ritual Coffee Roasters, and Chico Chai. There will also be hands-on activities for children.

This event is FREE, family-friendly, dog-friendly and open to the public. Street parking is available along Third Street with overflow parking in the Napa Fairgrounds lot across the street.

WHEN: Saturday, April 7, 2018 from 10 am – 4 pm

WHERE: The Oxbow School Campus, 530 Third Street, Napa, CA 94559

WHO: About Napa Makes
Napa Makes is a creative collaboration between local friends who work, play and create in Napa Valley. Liz Murray is the former studio coordinator at Penland School with a textile obsession, culinary chops and a green thumb. Emma K. Morris is a creative director, photographer and stylist with deep roots in the arts and a penchant for all things cozy and colorful. Jordan Felling is a printmaker and rare bird of an event planner who's company, The Pollinate Brand, shines-the-light on artists and makers by highlighting the handmade wherever possible.

About The Oxbow School

Founded in 1998 by Ann Hatch, Robert and Margrit Mondavi, The Oxbow School is a private, independent and not for profit organization located in Napa, California. It is nationally and internationally recognized as one of the best accredited, honors level, and college preparatory programs available to high school students interested in the visual arts. With a curriculum that matches the requirements of the nation's best public and private high schools The Oxbow School is as committed to academics as it is to art making.

The Oxbow School is accredited by The Western Association of Schools and Colleges (WASC), and AdvancEd. AdvancED accreditation divisions include: the North Central Association Commission on Accreditation and School Improvement (NCA CASI) and the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Council on Accreditation and School Improvement (SACS CASI). Oxbow School is a member of the International Network of Performing and Visual Arts Schools. Oxbow is a proud member of the Semester Schools Network.
